

Community Marine Watch Social Media Extracts 21/08/23 - 17/09/23 p2

Essex Police Marine Unit @EPMarine · Sep 7
 Multi-agency response to a report of persons trapped in the mud near Bradwell On Sea today. Both people were helped to safety by @ECFRS and checked over by @EastEnglandAmb. Suitable safety advice from @SWFCoastguard and us regarding the dangers of entering the mud on our coast

Essex Police Marine Unit @EPMarine · Sep 9
 Patrols were in the North of the county today, in Clacton, Brightlingsea, Point Clear Bay & the River Crouch. It was a very busy day with numerous races, Jet-Ski users, swimmers and paddle boarders. #MarinePolicing #RespectTheWater

Essex Police Marine Unit @EPMarine · Sep 8
 Patrolling the #RiverOrwell today, providing visibility and reassurance to the marine community. On our way up we couldn't help admiring these historic barges heading across the #RiverBlackwater on their way to the annual Colne Smack and Barge Match at Brightlingsea tomorrow.

Essex Police Marine Unit @EPMarine · Sep 13
 We will be at Ha'penny Pier for this event on 14th October (pending any operational commitments that may come up). Please come along to see our boat, meet our team and maybe listen to Pc Chambers singing a shanty or two!

Harwich Shanty Fest @HarwichShanty · Aug 25
 2023 Programme now available at Ha'Penny Pier Visitor Centre

Chappers 🐕🐝🐛 @Chappers2013 · Sep 9
 Took this photo of Clacton from my jetski & was "buzzed" by another jetski 🤪 who then went far too close to the fishermen on the pier AND THEN did doughnuts just off the beach 🤪

Wasn't clever, didn't see this boat coming did he!
#ohdearhowsadnevermind
 No time for clowns! 🤪

Essex Police Marine Unit @EPMarine · Sep 13
 We are conducting @ArrestVessel training this week with @BroadsBeat @NorfolkPolice. This system forms part of the National Marine Tactics and provides us with options to safely stop a vessel on the water.

